

Experience Pacific Trans-Siberian Express

Categories of travel on-board

Gold Deluxe Class offers the highest possible level of comfort on the Pacific Trans-Siberian. Each compartment measures 77 sq. ft. (7. m²). Two beds per cabin; 1 lower bed (185x120cm) and one upper bed (185x90cm). The compartment's exclusive en suite bathroom contains a wash basin, WC and shower cabin. "Gold Deluxe" class benefits include; remote controlled air conditioning, wardrobe, DVD/CD player with LCD and a seating bench for that special view of the changing landscapes. Early booking for this class is highly recommended due to limited availability and high demand.

Standard Plus Class has two berths per cabin, sized (185x65cm) and are arranged facing each other. Each compartment measures 43 sq. ft. (4 m²) "Standard Plus" class benefits include; centrally controlled air conditioning and a table under the window, luggage storage is provided above the door. Unisex toilet facilities are located at each end of the car. Guests of "Standard Plus" class will have the opportunity of having showers at hotel dayrooms provided in Krasnoyarsk.

Standard Economy Class has four berths per cabin. 2 lower, and 2 upper (185x65cm) arranged in bunk bed format. Each compartment measures 43 sq. ft. (4 m²) "Standard Economy" class benefits include; centrally controlled air conditioning, a table under the window, and luggage storage is provided above the door. Unisex toilet facilities are located at the end of this categories car. Guests of "Standard Plus" class will have the opportunity of having showers at hotel dayrooms provided in Krasnoyarsk.

This class is available when 3 or 4 passengers book together. On-board the Pacific Trans-Siberian Express you will all travel in the same 4-berth compartment. When accommodated at hotels twin rooms will be allocated for groups of 4 people, and one twin plus one single will be allocated for groups of 3 people.

