Leaving from Beijing to St. Petersburg

The idea of this one is to combine the “top stops” into one astonishing itinerary. It’s a nice balance between three “Asian” stops (Beijing, Ulaanbaatar, Ulan-Uday) and three “Russian” stops (Irkutsk, Ekaterinburg and Moscow). This one’s highly customisable – your stops include one set of options that feature the active outdoors, or another set profiling local culture and tradition. Like most of what Russia Experience does, the only herds you’ll see are sheep or goats – these are side- trips that couldn’t work for big groups even if we wanted to (which we don’t)... we springboard you into the remoter locations away from the railway which have “what you came to see”.

In the know...

Chinese cuisine varies enormously from region to region, and it's really truer to say that there are many different cuisines in China.

Siberia lies entirely in Asia, and its native peoples are Asiatic – it was the Russians who came as settlers. There are over 30 native Asiatic languages still spoken in Siberia to this day.

“Nomads” don’t just wander around aimlessly. Most Nomads will roam over the same land and tracks their grandparents knew, always returning in winter to the same place, where their animal pens are located. Nomads traditionally count their wealth in head of animals, not in money.

No ordinary trip

At The Russia Experience we like to ditch the clichés, discard the puff and concentrate on what we do best – bringing to life the world's longest train route: the places visited, the encounters made and the realisation of a journey that is both engaging and rewarding.

We continually look at ways of enhancing the Trans Siberian experience, incorporating seasonal considerations (such as the Harbin Ice Festival), providing the historical context (pay a visit to the only remaining Soviet Gulag) or inviting you to savour the diverse cultural influences of indigenous people (sit down with a shaman, or enjoy the Siberian art of throat singing!).

We have no group departures, our advertised dates always operate (barring anything completely out of our control) and, above all, we will tell you it like it is – allowing you to make the right choice from a portfolio of journeys rich in variety and full of memorable experiences. Sorry! We couldn't resist at least one cliché!

Visa Requirements

Visitors to Russia, Mongolia and China require visas. These must be obtained prior to departure. Visa processing times for these countries can be up to;

China	10 Working Days
Mongolia	10 Working Days
Russia	25 Working Days

However fast track processing is possible.

Due to the support documents required by the Embassy of Russia (which we obtain), you will need to book your trip before starting to obtain visas.

For full information regarding visas, please refer to our web site.

Hints and Tips

TOP TIP! – This trip is a great balance with three stops in Russia plus three in Asia!

Photocopy your passport including the visas issued pages, airline tickets and insurance policies.

Your passport must be valid for at least six months past the end of your travel dates.

Travellers Checklist

DAY 01

On arrival in Beijing you're free to make your own way to the hotel – any taxi driver will quickly find the address. The convenient location positions you to get the most of your own exploration of this legendary Imperial city, where the rich traditions of Buddhism, Daoism, and Confucianism meet with the opulence of the Chinese Emperors and the vibrant realism of contemporary China. Chinese hotels cope badly with the idea of foreigners who haven't yet arrived so we'll have your onward rail tickets delivered once you have checked in, although with user hints, directions to the station, and Chinese language directions that will help you catch a taxi successfully and smoothly. During your stay in Beijing you'll certainly want to visit both the Forbidden City and Tiananmen Square. These are within walking distance of the Red Wall Hotel, and adjacent to each other, so this couldn't be more convenient! (Please note your Trans-Siberian train tickets will be delivered to the hotel during your stay.)

No meals

DAY 02

Your time is free until your train departs. Hotel reception can preorder you a taxi – it's wise to allow one hour to get through Beijing's traffic and a second hour to complete security (metal-detectors are now in force and there can be queues to use them) and find your train and platform. And then you're heading off, along the most famous railway in the world!

DAY 03

Afternoon arrival in Ulaanbaatar. Our driver will meet you at the end of the platform and will be holding a meeting-board with your name on. Transfer from the station to a hotel with a chance freshen up and have a light snack before departing for your city tour. Then transfer to Elstei Ger Lodge (70km). A relaxed evening in the bar after supper there are occasional impromptu performances of live Mongolian music, where you might hear the Morin Khuur (horse-head lyre), the cimbalom, or native Mongolian throat-singing.

Light Snack, Supper

DAY 04

With no specific activities planned you can choose to chill out, read, sunbathe, go walking, or (for a small payment made directly to them locally) you can go horse riding with local nomad horsemen.

Breakfast, Lunch, Supper

DAY 05

After breakfast you will depart Ulaanbaatar for the Bayangobi region. Picnic lunch en-route. Arrival at a herdsman encampment late afternoon. Tonight you are the guests of the herdsman, and you'll stay in a nomadic ger tent – supper with your herdsman hosts.

DAY 06

Depart after breakfast for a day trip through the countryside of Övörkhangai Province in the direction of Harhorin (two hours of off-road driving each way). Our route takes us into the Orkhon Valley, a World Heritage Site, which can be called the birthplace of Mongolian civilisation – the sites of the earliest metal working (which created the weapons that made the Mongolian empire great) are located here. We stop for a picnic lunch amid the stunning scenery. This afternoon we arrive at modern Harhorin – the settlement Genghis Khan would have known as Karakorum. It was here at the legendary gathering of clans that they declared Genghis the "Great Khan" ("Chinghiskhan"), and his military campaigns of conquest began. Nothing is left of the ancient settlement, but on its site is the (rather later) monastery of Erdene Zuu, one of the most important Buddhist centres in Mongolia... and on the grounds of the monastery is the single turtle statue that remains of Genghis's great Royal Court. Come back to our nomadic host family and will have a traditional communal supper with them.

DAY 07

Around 10am you make the return trip to Ulaanbaatar. Check into the Bayangol 4* hotel. This is a great centrally located property and facilities include 5 restaurants, fitness centre, sauna and minimarket. The balance of today is free to explore more of the city. You can choose to visit the heady atmosphere surrounding the Gandan Monastery or visit the Choijin Monastery Museum, or the Bazaar... log on and pick up your email in one of the numerous internet cafes on Peace

Avenue, have a latte and French pastries in the new generation of new-age coffee stores, go souvenir shopping in the peculiar grandeur of the Central Department Store, or pick up some snack food for the train in the Store's food department... in the evening a wide range of traditional and new style Mongolian eateries are vying with European style places, Irish pubs and German beer halls to enjoy, usually with live music later on.

Breakfast

DAY 08

If you are interested in Mongolian Buddhism you may be interested in making a return visit to the Gandan Monastery this morning, to see the morning prayer-ceremonies in progress. We also suggest you take an opportunity today to purchase picnic provisions for the next leg of your journey, as often this train has no dining car. This evening we will transfer you to the station where you will board the Ulan-Uday bound train.

Breakfast

DAY 09

Arrive in Ulan-Uday late evening. Our driver will meet you at the end of the platform and will be holding a meeting-board with your name on. Transfer from the station to your home-stay.

DAY 10

After breakfast a guided trip to Atsagatsky Buddhist Lamastery, and the strange history of its Abbot Dorjiev and his role in the life of Russia's last Tsar. After the monastery, try the cuisine of Buryatia for lunch with a village family. Return to host(s) for traditional supper. If you rate comfort over authenticity hotel upgrades are available.

Breakfast, Lunch, Supper

DAY 11

Visit to the Ivolginsky Datsan. Excursion to Tarbagatay, a village with traditional brightly painted house, home to the "Old Believers", whose simple life of hard work and avoidance of luxuries have led some to call them "Russia's Amish" – they claim to be the true branch of Russian Orthodox Christianity, and refused to accept religious reforms of the 17th when they fled to Siberia to escape the persecution that followed. Late evening transfer to the station where you will board the Irkutsk bound train.

Breakfast, Lunch, Supper

These dossiers are designed to provide you with a guide to our trips, the places visited, accommodation used and to give you a flavour of your daily itinerary. You will be travelling in parts of the world where the unanticipated and the unusual are all part of the experience and, as a result, the unexpected can happen and we may on occasions need to vary your plans. These dossiers do not form part of any contract.

It functions as bar, lounge, and take-out snack store, as well as a café serving reasonably priced meals. The tour ends in the downtown area (we make sure you know the way back!)

Breakfast, Lunch

(Geographical note: Ekaterinburg has borders on both the Western and Eastern sides of town... to the West is the official border between Europe & Asia, and to the East of Ekaterinburg is where Siberia officially begins.) The Siberian border was more than symbolic in the C19th – it delineated an area where a more rough and ready system of justice operated, where escaped serfs who had run away from their masters could legally claim sanctuary. For oppressed religious minorities, escaped serfs and others, the one-way trip to Siberia was, ironically, the "highway of hope".

- A. ROMANOV GRAVES (Europe/Asia Border Monument en-route). Car excursion to site where the Romanov bodies were hidden. Duration; 5–6 hours. No physical exertion involved. Light lunch provided. Year round.
- B. SIBERIAN COUNTRYSIDE & HISTORIC VILLAGE Visit to an old village (145 km each way) now under a Preservation Order. Includes home-cooked lunch, exhibitions of local craft, horse cart riding. Duration; 8–9 hours. No physical exertion involved. Year round.
- C. HIKING TRIP IN THE URALS Outdoor adventure in an area which is a designated nature park. Car transfer, then 18km walk where you will see a variety of flora and fauna and learn about the indigenous species of wildlife. No special equipment needed. Duration; 8 hours. Lunch provided. 15 June–15 September. Weather permitting.
- D. SIBERIAN WILDERNESS ADVENTURE Combined soft raft (6km) and Forest Hike (12km) – optional cave visit. Good fitness required. Duration; 9–10 hours. Lunch provided. 15 June–15 September. Weather permitting.
- E. MOUNTAIN BIKING IN THE URALS Trip to start West of the city. After a short drive you start your bike trip on a professional bike for 2–3 hrs. Lunch. Duration; 5 hrs. 15 May–30 Sep. Weather permitting.

DAY 18

Early morning transfer to the station where you will board the Moscow bound train.

DAY 19

You'll then be transferred to the Irbis 3* Hotel. The facilities available at this hotel include a Restaurant, Lobby Bar, Lobby Wi-Fi access, Luggage Room, Safety deposit boxes and an ATM machine. At check-in, (after 2pm) the hotel reception will advise you they will need your passport for visa registration. This process takes 1–2 hours. Your complimentary InfoPack is full of ideas for getting the most out of your free time.

No meals

DAY 20

After breakfast one of our local expert staff will meet you at the hotel to take you on a three hour walking tour round the highlights – you'll use public transport around the centre to avoid the traffic jams and get the hang of the system for when you come to use it independently. Our staffers are full of ideas for this walk but are flexible about other ideas if you have your own. Your walk ends in the city centre around lunchtime. If you haven't pre-booked any of our range of city excursions the rest of the day is your own to explore further. Some of our top suggestions (please check opening times/days before setting off) would include visiting the Moscow Kremlin, the Tretyakov Gallery, the Pushkin Fine Arts Museum, or a boat trip along the Moskva River... perhaps locate some tickets for ballet, opera, circus or a concert this evening? As well as famous classical music traditions Moscow features on the touring schedules of world names in jazz, rock, pop and world music.
