Leaving from Beijing to Moscow

As a contrast to some of our trips about the culture, history and traditions of the destinations, this trip is more adventure driven and packed with outdoor activity! It even operates year round, including husky dog sledding in the Urals Mountains. There's hiking at Lake Baikal in summer or snowmobiles in winter. A little shot of vodka afterwards will warm you up!

In the know...

"Nomads" don't just wander around aimlessly. Most Nomads will roam over the same land and tracks their grandparents knew, always returning in winter to the same place, where their animal pens are located. Nomads traditionally count their wealth in head of animals, not in money.

Siberia lies entirely in Asia, and its native peoples are Asiatic – it was the Russians who came as settlers. There are over 30 native Asiatic languages still spoken in Siberia to this day.

Chinese cuisine varies enormously from region to region, and it's really truer to say that there are many different cuisines in China.

No ordinary trip

At The Russia Experience we like to ditch the clichés, discard the puff and concentrate on what we do best – bringing to life the world's longest train route: the places visited, the encounters made and the realisation of a journey that is both engaging and rewarding.

We continually look at ways of enhancing the Trans Siberian experience, incorporating seasonal considerations (such as the Harbin Ice Festival), providing the historical context (pay a visit to the only remaining Soviet Gulag) or inviting you to savour the diverse cultural influences of indigenous people (sit down with a shaman, or enjoy the Siberian art of throat singing!).

We have no group departures, our advertised dates always operate (barring anything completely out of our control) and, above all, we will tell you it like it is – allowing you to make the right choice from a portfolio of journeys rich in variety and full of memorable experiences. Sorry! We couldn't resist at least one cliché!

Visa Requirements

Visitors to Russia, Mongolia and China require visas. These must be obtained prior to departure. Visa processing times for these countries can be up to;

|          |                 |
|----------|-----------------|
| China    | 10 Working Days |
| Mongolia | 10 Working Days |
| Russia   | 25 Working Days |

However fast track processing is possible.

Due to the support documents required by the Embassy of Russia (which we obtain), you will need to book your trip before starting to obtain visas.

For full information regarding visas, please refer to our web site.

Hints and Tips

TOP TIP! – If you chose to book the no frills trip, you will miss Lake Baikal and Elstei Ger Lodge... why would you?

Photocopy your passport including the visas issued pages, airline tickets and insurance policies.

Your passport must be valid for at least six months past the end of your travel dates.

Experience Super Trans-Sib

full on itinerary – 17 days

Leaving from Beijing to Moscow

DAY 01

On arrival in Beijing you're free to make your own way to the hotel – any taxi driver will quickly find the address. The convenient location positions you to get the most of your own exploration of this legendary Imperial city, where the rich traditions of Buddhism, Daoism, and Confucianism meet with the opulence of the Chinese Emperors and the vibrant realism of contemporary China. Chinese hotels cope badly with the idea of foreigners who haven't yet arrived so we'll have your onward rail tickets delivered once you have checked in, although with user hints, directions to the station, and Chinese language directions that will help you catch a taxi successfully and smoothly. During your stay in Beijing you'll certainly want to visit both the Forbidden City and Tiananmen Square. These are within walking distance of the Red Wall Hotel, and adjacent to each other, so this couldn't be more convenient! (Please note your Trans-Siberian train tickets will be delivered to the hotel during your stay.)

No meals

DAY 02

Your time is free until your train departs. Hotel reception can preorder you a taxi – it's wise to allow one hour to get through Beijing's traffic and a second hour to complete security (metal-detectors are now in force and there can be queues to use them) and find your train and platform. And then you're heading off, along the most famous railway in the world!

DAY 03

Afternoon arrival in Ulaanbaatar. Our driver will meet you at the end of the platform and will be holding a meeting-board with your name on. Transfer from the station to a hotel with a chance to freshen up and have light snack, before departing for your city tour. Then transfer to Elstei Ger Lodge (70km). A relaxed evening in the bar after supper – there are occasional impromptu performances of live Mongolian music, where you might hear the Morin Khuur (horse-head lyre), the cimbalom, or native Mongolian throat-singing.

Light Snack, Supper

DAY 04

With no specific activities planned you can choose to chill out, read, or go walking, or (for a small payment made directly to them locally) you can go horse riding with local nomad horsemen.

Breakfast, Lunch, Supper

DAY 05

After breakfast make the return trip to Ulaanbaatar. Check into the Bayangol 4★ hotel. This is a great centrally located property and facilities include 5 restaurants, fitness centre, sauna and a supermarket. The balance of today is free to explore more of the city. You can choose to visit the heady atmosphere surrounding the Gandan Monastery or visit the Chojin Monastery Museum, or the Bazaar... log on and pick up your email in one of the numerous internet cafes on Peace Avenue, have a latte and French pastries in the new generation of new-age coffee stores, go souvenir shopping in the peculiar grandeur of the Central Department Store, or pick up some snack food for the train in the Store's food department... in the evening a wide range of traditional and new style Mongolian eateries are vying with European style places, Irish pubs and German beer halls to enjoy, usually with live music later on.

Breakfast

DAY 06

If you are interested in Mongolian Buddhism you may be interested in making a return visit to the Gandan Monastery this morning, to see the morning prayer-ceremonies in progress. We also suggest you take an opportunity today to purchase picnic provisions for the next leg of your journey, as often this train as no dining car. This evening we will transfer you to the station where you will board the Irkutsk bound train.

Breakfast

DAY 07

On board The Trans-Sib... heading towards Russia. When you make the border crossing there will be the usual halt for formalities.

(Geographical note: Ekaterinburg has borders on both the Western and Eastern sides of town to the West is the official border between Europe & Asia, and to the East of Ekaterinburg is where Siberia officially begins. The Siberian border was more than symbolic in the C19th – it delineated an area where a more rough and ready system of justice operated, where escaped serfs who had run away from their masters could legally claim sanctuary. For oppressed religious minorities, escaped serfs and others, the one-way trip to Siberia was, ironically, the "highway of hope".
